BIO

Alexei Berteig was born in a cold and beautiful Prairie town in the heart of Canada. After graduating from the prestigious Canadian Film Centre Writer's Lab he wrote a number of scripts for North American producers and worked as story editor on a number of high profile projects. After coming to Beijing in 2003, he continued writing for producers in Asia, and currently has five feature scripts in development. His background in storytelling informs his current work as a cinematographer and director. He has shot TVC's for clients including Maybelline, L'Oreal, BMW, Mercedes, Adidas, HP, Motorola, Haier and others, and documentary projects for Discovery, BBC, and French TV. As a director, Alexei has worked in theater, television, documentary, short film, micro film and television commercials. His clients include Shanghai TV, Maybelline, Motorola, China National Insurance and others. Alexei and his Chinese wife currently live in Beijing with their two daughters.
